

GREEN, William Dewey, 83 of Richmond, passed away Wednesday, April 2, 2014. Mr. Green was born in Shelbyville, Ky. He is survived by his wife and college sweetheart of 59 years, Jeanette Snidow Green; son, William Stanley Green; daughters, Holly Susan Williams (Randall) and Hope Green Dornik (Arthur); granddaughter, Suzanna Carrie Alsobrook (Joshua); grandsons, Daniel Logan Johnson, Luke Bennett Johnson, Samuel Harper Dornik and William Lloyd Dornik, sisters, Carolyn Johnson, Dorothy Miller, Lyland Gray (Bill), and brother, Michael Green (Barbara); and many nieces and nephews.

Mr. Green was predeceased by his father, Dewey Leonard Green, who was a grocer and realtor and his mother, May Demaree Tevis Green, a former school teacher who served on the Board of Education; sisters Virginia Sainsbury, Elizabeth Doyen; and brothers, Byron, Jack, and Bob Green.

One of ten siblings to attend the Shelbyville public schools, Mr. Green was chosen for All State honors in football, as were each of his four brothers. He attended the University of Kentucky from which he graduated in 1954 and attended post graduate studies at Wofford College. He served as First Lieutenant in the U.S. Infantry during the Korean Conflict. Bill was given a Paul Harris Fellowship Award for his work with the Rotary Club in West Charlotte, N.C. He was on the Board of Directors for Solite Corporation for many years. As president of the Block Division of Solite, he managed nine block companies in North Carolina and Virginia. He was a Board Member of the National Concrete Masonry Association and became an honorary lifetime member. He enjoyed watching THE University of Kentucky with his fellow alumnus, and spending time with his loved ones. "GO WILDCATS!" Bill had a generous, fun spirit and will be remembered for his humor, honor, and kindness but above all his devotion to his family.

In lieu of flowers, the family would like to ask that donations be made to Third Presbyterian Church or the cancer charity of choice. There will be a 1 p.m. memorial Friday, April 11, 2014, celebrating the life of Bill, at Third Presbyterian Church, 500 Forest Ave., Richmond, Va., with a reception immediately following in the Fellowship Hall.
